Office of the Grand Secretary

Electronic communication / e-mail consent

Dear Sir and Brother:

Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan regulations permit the transmission of the summons and other communications by e-mail. Internet and in particular our web page at www.saskmasons.ca, is quickly becoming the most important avenue for exchange of information between our members, potential members, general public and our Grand Lodge Office.

Privacy concerns and our own commitment to our members however, demand, that we obtain your permission to publish and use your name, telephone number and e-mail address on pages connected with lodge or fraternal contact information and directory

Please complete and return this form without delay, to
